Robert May Takes First Place In Ogden Contest

Robert W. May, Western senior from Russellville, was declared the winner of the 1959 Ogden Oratorical Contest held in the Little Theatre of the Library Building on Western campus Tuesday afternoon, January 20, at 3 o'clock.

Winning Speech
May's speech, entitled "The Right Decision," proposed that America is faced with making the decision of whether to continue its present program of maintaining its military strength or embarking on a program of disarmament. May's thesis is that we must remain militarily strong to prevent surprise attacks, as a deterrent to World War III, and to keep the peace existent in the world today.

He is also a member of the Western Debate Associates, this year debating as a member of the varsity negative team. He was a member of the team which placed first in the Western Kentucky Debate Tournament on November 15, 1958, and went on to win first place in the Kentucky Debate Tournament, held at Berea College on January 10, 1959.

Jordan Second
Archie Jordan, Western junior from Crofton, was chosen first alternate. Jordan's speech developed a historical theme presenting the significance of America's growth. It was entitled "Small

Hardin Thompson Undergoes 2nd Brain Operation

After a very serious operation performed last Friday for the removal of a brain tumor, the condition of Hardin Thompson is slightly improved but he remains on the critical list.

Hardin, 21, is the son of Dr. Kelly Thompson, president of Western State College; and Mrs. Thompson. The latest report stated his condition as "somewhat better."

Vanderbilt Hospital authorities said he was allowed no visitors except his immediate family.

Anyone wishing more information on Hardin's condition can learn this from the Herald Office or from the immediate family.

Western Granted $25,000 For Alarms And Sprinkler

The completion of automatic fire alarm systems in all the dormitories at Western and the installation of an automatic sprinkler system throughout the Training School are now assured by a state grant of $25,000 according to President Kelly Thompson.

Western's request for the funds was approved by the State Department of Finance. The $25,000 will be taken from the surplus funds accumulated from the state insurance program of the State Department of Insurance.

New Fire Alarms
McLean and West halls, dormitories for women, will have new fire alarm systems installed. Upon completion of these projects,

AAUW Meet Scheduled For February 19

The annual AAUW Oratorical contest, open to women of the junior and senior classes, is scheduled for 3 p.m. in the Little Theater on Thursday, February 19. Entries in the contest should be registered with Mr. Russell H. Miller, director of speech activities, by Friday, February 13.

The winner of the contest will represent Western in the state Oratorical competition. The winner of last year's AAUW contest, Naomi Dempsey, senior from Sturgis, represented Western in the Kentucky Oratorical contest held here last April.

Debate Team Places 4th In Tourney

Western's intercollegiate debate team traveled to Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill., on February 7 for the Lincoln Douglas Centennial Debate Tournament. The team emerged from competition with a record of five wins and three losses.

Lerond Curry, Mary Ruth Grise, Bob Siddens, and Bob May represented Western. They were accompanied by Mr. Russell H. Miller, director of speech and drama activities and sponsor of Western Debate Associates.

22 Colleges Represented
Twenty-two colleges and universities were represented, including De Paul University, Northwestern, University of Illinois at Chicago, Principia College, Uni-

Exercise Your Right

By Bob Wilson

"If I'm old enough to fight, I'm old enough to vote." These were the words of many Kentucky boys for many years until a few years ago they were given the right to cast their ballots upon reaching the age of 18. The gals aren't meant to be excluded as they were given the same right to vote.

Georgia Leads

For many years, the state of Georgia was the only state in the union which permitted young men and women to vote when they became 18 years of age. The young people of Kentucky felt that they should be given this equality and the representatives and the senators did also. The Kentucky Revised Statutes gives each of us this cherished right which we have sought to attain for years.

One of the most heartbreaking facts which remains is that such a large number of youngsters have, to this day, made no effort to even register to vote. The law states that every eligible voter must register with the county clerk 60 days before the next election. Our next election which affects Kentucky will be the Democratic primary election on May 26.

Duty Of A citizen

It is every citizen's duty to register and to vote in every primary and general election. How are we to expect to gain any means of freedom and privilege if we do not exercise the ones which we have? Many hours were spent in the legislative halls of our Commonwealth and many costly man hours were exerted in studies concerning the right to vote for those of our group who have not reached 21. Was all this effort spent in vain? Do we fight for a cause and after winning it just sit down and forget it?

Don't Gripe—Act

Our biggest grippers on this campus and others alike, are those people who have never registered to vote or who have never bothered to vote. These people oppose many things, and nine times out of ten, don't even know why. They seek reforms in government, but do they do anything about it? Sure! They have all the answers. If all this hot air could be harnessed, we could heat our school at a great reduction in cost.

The books are now open in the county, in which you live. Take the time to go by and register for your part in Kentucky's government. Once you have, no one can accuse you of not taking part in elections in your state, county, or city.

If you aren't able to go home this weekend or next weekend, write to your county clerk at once informing him of your plight. Make a special effort to go home before March 28 in order that you will not be a disinterested citizen in the next election.

Absentee Ballots

Truly, you will be in school on the day of the primary election, but we can solve that problem also. All you have to do is write to your county clerk and apply for an absentee ballot. This ballot will be sent to you before election day.

Age Requirement

Do not be dismayed if you aren't 18 yet, but will be on or before election day. You will be allowed to register for the primary at the age of 17 if you will be 18 by May 26. Even if you aren't able to vote in the primary, you should register. You will be 18 by November in order to vote in the November election. Let's not fail out! Get up and get out—get out those who haven't registered and see to it that they do so. By doing this you will do your part in governing Kentucky and electing the people's choice.

Book Marks

By PERRY LEWIS

Browsing through the 88,085 volumes in the library you will find books on almost any subject imaginable. There are a few times, of course, when a student will not find the book he desires; then he will ask, "why don't they buy the book I want?" By "they," the disappointed student is probably referring to the library staff and the faculty members. The staff and the faculty members have not selected all of these 88,000 books; many were selected and given to the library by individuals who realize the importance and need of an adequate collection of books and materials for all those who use the library.

Three friends of the library, who have recently contributed to our collection are Mrs. G. Y. Graves, Mrs. Tom Morris Hunt, and Miss Theresa McGinley.

The books given by Mrs. Graves were written to inform the American Public. The authors of these books believed that widespread knowledge of their subjects, Labor and Education, would help bring about reasonable solutions to many of the problems the American people must solve. The books she gave are, Labor in America, by Harold U. Faulkner and Mark Starr; Labor Unions and Public Policy, by Edward H. Chamberlin; Philip D. Bradley, Gerald D. Reilly and Roscoe Pound; Labor Union Manopoly, by Robert R. Richberg.

The High School in A New Era by Francis S. Chase and Harold A. Anderson and Public Education in America edited by George Z. F. Bereday and Lajzl Volicall are the two books on education. They should be of particular interest to Western students.

The volumes given by Mrs. Tom Morris Hunt offer the reader a wide range of subject matter. Among those she contributed are several novels, including Marching On, by James Boyd; Blackbirds on the Lawn, by Jane Morton; The Silver Chalice, by Thomas B. Costain; and religious books such as The Bible Story; and The Christ at the Peace Table. Others are The Poems of Eugene Field; Stories of the Great Operas and their Composers, by Ernest Newman; and Trees Worth Knowing, by Julia Ellen Rogers.

Miss Theresa McGinley's contribution was Anthony Trollope, An Autobiography, edited by Frederick Page, and Michel Sadlier. Trollope was an English author who wrote some fifty novels. Some of his best are included in the Barchester Chronicles, which deal with the social life of a small cathedral city and the Parliamentary Series, which as the word parliamentary suggests are political. Trollope was born in 1815 and died in 1882; therefore one could falsely assume that his books are old; but remember that any book is new until you have read it.

Kentucky Building

By Bob Richardson

The Kentucky Building was visited by people from thirty seven states, the District of Columbia, and several distant parts of the world during the year 1958.

Eleven states were not represented by a signed registration. As many visitors did not give addresses and it is possible that some could have been from the following states not represented: Arizona, Delaware, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Carolina, and Vermont.

Foreign Visitors

There were visitors from sixteen foreign countries: England, Canada, Southern Rhodesia, Germany, the Philippine Islands, Switzerland, Denmark, Belgium, Turkey, France, Norway, Holland, Sweden, Cuba, Luxembourg, and Italy. Southern Rhodesia and Turkey were represented for the first time.

Numerous Visitors

There were 5,210 actual registrations at the Museum. This figure does not include many individuals who did not register; nor does it include group totals, where an organization is registered only by its name. Also, it does not include the hundreds of people who see a part or all of the building as a result of attending one or more of the various meetings held in the building throughout the year for which no records are kept.

Religious News

By Faith Rives

A Valentine Party will be held Friday, February 13, at the Baptist Student Union sponsored by the Y. W. A. Everyone is invited to attend.

On Tuesday at 6:00 Western Students assembled in the Little Theatre for Vesper Services. The singing was led by Larry Long, and Elizabeth Hopson read a sermon by the late Peter Marshall. The religious council was called to meet in the Upper Room after the service. Officers are: president, Janice Walters; vice-president, Jim Gilliam; secretary, Ted Hood; publicity, Allen Dooley.

Presbyterian News

The Westminster Fellowship has elected their officers for the year 1959. They are as follows: president, John Boyd; vice-president, Rinnie Cartwright; secretary, Lena Priestley; treasurer, Vernon Haber. The officers have appointed the following committee chairmen: Fellowship, Bill Lawrence; Outreach, Joy Farnsworth; Publicity, Melva Strawbridge; Supper, Sharon Goff; Transportation, Steve Spires.

The program this past Sunday evening was a movie, "Campus Encounter." Karen Steinbremer led the worship service. This week, February 22, the program is "Why Should We Be Interested in The Middle East?" Dr. Earle Moore will be the speaker. The meeting this week is at the Gordons' home, 727 Tenth Street. Supper begins at 5:30. Rides will be in McLean parking lot at 5:15.

Middle East

"The Middle East" is the topic under discussion at the Presbyterian Church, 10th and State streets, scheduled in connection with the church's special emphasis on world missions.

The first sermon, in a series of four sermons and four lectures, was presented at 8:30 a. m. and 10:45 a. m., Monday, January 9, by the pastor of the church, Dr. Angus N. Gordon. The subject of the sermon was "The World Mission of Christianity. The Significance of The New Name."

The first lecture in the series was given on Thursday at 7:30 p. m. by Dr. A. M. Stickles, formerly of Western's History department, and now retired. Dr. Stickles will speak on the subject of "Background of the Present Middle East."

Dr. Stickles came to Western in 1908 and for 47 years, until his retirement in 1954, taught all phases of history.

The weekly lecture series will be presented through March 5, and will begin at 7:30 and continue to 9:00 p. m. Other speakers in the series will be Dr. Earl A. Moore, English department, Miss Ercell Egbert, History department, and Dr. Gordon, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

HILLTOPICS

By CARL P. CHELF

A new semester, a new staff, and everyone eager to get things going. What more could we want? We have managed — through several sleepless nights, hours of cramming, and then sweating over five or six pages of questions—to finish our final exams for the first semester. We are starting off with a clean slate and a firm resolution never to put our studying off until the last minute again.

Forgetting assignments and failing to do homework is a malady common to all college students — freshman through senior. It can be especially strenuous on the individual when he discovers about five minutes before class that he was supposed to have read two chapters for that day. This has developed some amazingly fast readers among our upperclassmen. It's a shame our reading teachers can't find such an effective form of motivation for use on "Johnnie."

Already two weeks in the fresh, new semester have flown by. By this time everyone has settled down to the routine of going to class and has finally mastered the art of finding his classroom without consulting his schedule card and scurrying up and down the hallways in search of the right room.

We notice some new faces on the campus as we enter the new semester. We want to welcome all of the new students and tell you that we are glad to have you here at Western.

We also have lost a few students due to various reasons, but this is inevitable. However, this means that the students that we have back are the "cream of the crop" in a sense; they are the students who will go on to higher achievements. The ability of a person to go away from home and attend college is a sign of maturity and dependence on oneself. The student who is able to do this has become an adult, and he is to be congratulated on his "growing-up."

Lay The Foundation

You've all heard the old saying "you can't teach and old dog new tricks." This is far from being a completely true statement as has been proved numerous times by older persons achieving great success and making new discoveries. Albert Einstein was no spring chicken when he came up with his atomic energy formula, and John Milton was an old man when he completed his masterpiece. There are examples too numerous to name that show that this saying is not a settled fact.

However, I would like to point out here that although it is not completely true, this saying does have some good thinking and good advice in it. It is a fact, as psychologists have proved, that one can learn much better at a younger age. Most of us who are in college are at that prime age for the learning process to function at a high rate of efficiency. We are at an age when learning is the natural thing to do.

Since we are at such a good stage for learning, it is imperative that we apply ourselves well. Einstein and Milton did achieve great success and fame in later life, but one should notice that their younger days were spent in preparation and construction of a foundation for the achievement of success. We are at this stage of laying a foundation for our later life. How well we apply ourselves, and how well we learn to reason and think for ourselves will determine to a great extent how well we learn "new tricks" in later life.

MISS COUNTY FAIR — Miss Barbara Humphries, a freshman elementary education major at Western, was chosen as Miss County Fair in a statewide contest. Barbara will compete in the "Queen of Queens" contest in Chicago in December. She won in competition with twenty-eight other contestants.

Barbara Humphries Is Named Miss County Fair

Barbara Ann Humphries, a freshman at Western, was recently named Miss County Fair for 1959 in the statewide contest from among 28 county-fair queens at a meeting of the Kentucky Association of Fairs and Horse Shows at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville.

Compete In Chicago

Miss Humphries received a trophy, $100 in cash and will compete in the "Queen of Queens" contest to be held in Chicago next December.

Winning such contests is becoming a habit with Barbara Ann as she gained her opportunity to participate by having been selected Miss Monroe County last August in Tompkinsville. She placed not lower than second in several other similar contests during the past year.

Miss Freshman

During the fall semester she was chosen Western's Military

Ball Queen and within the past month was named Miss Freshman. Her home is in Bowling Green, she is a graduate of College High and is now majoring in elementary education at Western. Her hobbies are sewing and ballroom dancing. Barbara's ambition is to be a model. She now does some modeling for a local dress shop.

Community Players' Presentation Of "Sabrina Fair", Highly Successful

Those who braved the weather on Wednesday or Thursday evening, January 21 or 22, to attend the Community Players' "Sabrina Fair" in Van Meter Auditorium were treated to a handsomely mounted version of Samuel Taylor's sparkling comedy. The audience's approval and appreciation were manifest in the sincere and repeated applause that greeted the final curtain each evening.

First Production

"Sabrina Fair" was the first major production of the newly activated Community Players. A remarkably pleasant piece of theatre, it offers hilarity and a nostalgic picture of magnificence that is rapidly disappearing from the American scene. Though light and amusing, "Sabrina" combines some of the tough-mindedness of Shaw with some of the charm of Philip Barry to produce one of the best American comedies of manners in more than a decade.

Fine Portrayal

In the title role of Sabrina, Joan

Terry Ray played with skill and understanding. With unusual resourcefulness she made completely her own the interpretation of the part that audiences remember as Audrey Hepburn or Margaret Sullivan. As the Larrabee brothers who form with Sabrina the romantic triangle, Walter Langford and E. G. Monroe convincingly portrayed the phlegmatic versus the volatile romantic dispositions.

Others In Cast

Paul Clark added many hilarious moments with his blustering tycoon, Linus Sr., and Betty Ross Milliken captured admirably the foibles of Taylor's romantic sophisticate. Mildred Hoffman made Julia a handsome and spirited woman of legendary past and realistic sense of values. Gene Kelly brought a lift to the story with his effervescent Frenchman. Frances Anderson, P. A. Lenk, Sue Grafton, Judy Neill, Jim Flood, and Jim Mallon rounded out the gallery of characters with which Taylor tells his story.

Production Staff

Russell H. Miller, as producing director, who as an added chore served as a late replacement in the cast for Fairchild, has provided in "Sabrina Fair" an escape into a dramatic world of romance and sophistication. A great asset in this direction was the colorful decor of William Loy's setting. Loy also doubled as stage manager with the efficient John Minton, Mary Ferguson, Vivian Booker, Maria Brandon, Jo Ann Hall, Sally Coker, Sandra Dempsey, as crew.

Wilkins on the second team, and Richard Chapman, Phil Grogan, Freddy Higgins, and Jimmy Smith on the third team.

Participating for College High were Danny Boggs, Carol Corly, Bobby Denhart, Freida Friedli, Chester Mercer, and Judy Ward. Members of the junior and senior debate teams of College High acted as time keepers.

Judges

Judging the debates were the coaches from the several visiting schools, teachers at College High, and four Western students, Charlie Goodall, Linda Gass, Eugene Powell, and Henry Stone.

Both Bowling Green High and College High had attended previous debate tournaments at Bardstown and Russellville. Bowling Green High reached the finals at Bardstown and the semi-finals at Russellville. College High won all of their debates at Bardstown but lacked enough points to participate in the semi-finals. In Russellville, they won two out of three debates.

GOES AND GOES AND GOES ON A GALLON!

Biscayne 4-Door Sedan shows the Fisher Body beauty of Chevrolet's lowest priced series for '59.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

The smart switch is to the '59 Chevy!

available funds the order of selections will be based on objective criteria as determined by the institution.

Amount of Loans

The school determines the amount of the student loan except that no individual can borrow more than $1,000 annually or a total of $5,000. The student must, in the opinion of the school, be capable of maintaining a good standing in his course of study. He must need the loan to pursue a course of study in the institution.

Rate Of Interest

The rate of interest on the loans is three per cent annually. Interest starts to accrue when repayments begin and repayments are due one year after the borrower ceases to pursue a full-time course of study. The loan is to be repaid within ten years but the time may be extended if good cause is shown and accepted by the Commission. Up to 50 per cent of the loan will be cancelled if the borrower serves as a full-time teacher in a public elementary or secondary school in any state. The loan is reduced at the rate of 10 per cent per year for each year of teaching up to five years.

Western Graduate Is Author Of Book On Care Of Teeth

Your Child's Teeth by Dr. Robert J. Fanning was published by the Vantage Press, Inc. January 20, 1959.

Dr. Fanning was graduated from Western with a B. S. degree in 1939. He received D. D. S. at Ohio State University, his M. S. at University of Hawaii, and Dr. of Med. Dent. from the University of Heidelberg. Upon graduation from Ohio State, he became a Guggenheim Fellow in Children's Dentistry and after his service with the Army he received a research fellowship from Harvard and studied in Europe and the Far East.

Dr. Fanning was born in Cincinnati and he now makes his home in Covington. He is a member of the Northeastern and Kentucky Dental Societies and of the American Dental Association.

In his book, Your Child's Teeth, Dr. Fanning discusses the care of the teeth from the prenatal period and embryonic development through the oft-neglected baby teeth to the permanent teeth. Every parent will be anxious to know the answers to the questions answered by Dr. Fanning, in this book, and the book is written simply and clearly so that his program of care for the teeth is easily followed.

Western Debate Associates meets weekly at six o'clock on Tuesday night in Room One of the Student Center. All interested students are invited to attend any meetings.

WALTER S. LANGSFORD

Walt Langsford Named Assistant To Producer

Walter S. Langsford, Jr., Western senior from Boston, Kentucky, left Bowling Green on Friday, January 30, for Bardstown where he has accepted a position as assistant to the executive producer of "The Stephen Foster Story."

Successful Dramas

"The Stephen Foster Story" is the new symphonic drama authored by Paul Green dealing with incidents in the life and the music of Stephen Foster. It is scheduled to open this summer in the new Dan Talbot Amphitheatre being built for that purpose at Federal Hill, just outside of Bardstown. Green is the author of the successful "Lost Colony," "The Common Glory," "Wilderness Road," and others of the more successful historical outdoor dramas now playing in this section of the country.

Active In Productions

Langsford, for the past two years, has been student assistant to Russell H. Miller, director of speech and dramatic activities in the English department at Western. He has participated in all the productions of the college during that period either as technician or actor, sometimes in both capacities, notably in "Arms and The Man," "A View from the Bridge," "My Three Angels," "Summer and Smoke," and was recently seen in the Community Players' hit, "Sabrina Fair."

Chairman of Players

For the past year he has served as Chairman of the Executive Board of the Western Players. In 1958 he received an outstanding players award for his work in "Arms and The Man" and the Rish Cup for loyalty and service to the club. He handled the promotion in the recent production of "Macbeth" which brought eleven hundred high school students to this educational theatre project.

T. E. Cronk, the man most responsible for the success of "Wilderness Road," has been named as Executive Producer for "The Stephen Foster Story." He has been in Bardstown for over a year now supervising the basic activities. Langsford goes into his office on February 2 as the first assistant named in the building of the complete organization to be assembled for the production to open the latter part of June.

Western has been chosen as one of the centers where initial auditions will be conducted. Russell H. Miller has been designated by Cronk to handle the auditions in this area. Final acting auditions will be conducted by the author and the director, Sam Seiden, in Bardstown on March 15.

Former Western Grid Star Now News Cartoonist

Whitey Sanders, former Western quarterback, recently accepted the position of Editorial Cartoonist for the Greensboro Daily News, Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mr. Sanders was formerly a sports writer for the Stars & Stripes (Armed Services Newspaper) at Tokyo and editorial cartoonist for the English language Tokyo Times.

Holds Record

He compiled a national collegiate record which still stands by completing .667 percentage of his passes for Western during the 1953 season. He is married and has two daughters, Kathy and Vicki. His wife is the former Joyce Wallace of Munfordville, who was a cheerleader while she was a student at Western.

Sends Brochure

Before returning to the states, Sanders prepared a brochure of his work and mailed it to several newspapers in the South. He learned later that his brochure arrived at the Greensboro paper just as his predecessor, Hugh Haynie notified the management of his resignation.

That's hitting the target from nearly half-way around the world and should be evidence enough that Western's national passing recordholder still has his stuff.

Western Grad Wins Award For Second Time

Charley Robertson, B. S. '33, Louisville Works News editor, has for the second consecutive year been awarded the Kendrick Trophy. The trophy is awarded by the Community Chest to the industrial editor who does the best job each year of explaining the Community Chest story to his readers. The trophy remains in possession of the winning editor for one year and after winning it three times, one obtains permanent possession.

The trophy was presented to Mr. Robertson by Howard G. White, Director of Public Relations for the Louisville and Jefferson County Community Chest.

An equine statue goes to the winning editor each year for permanent possession.

Western Graduate Chosen Outstanding Young Kentuckian

Bart Hagerman, AB '48, MA '49, was recently named one of the three outstanding young men of 1958 by the Kentucky Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Hagerman, former editor of the Herald, was an English major. He was an active member of the Leiper English club and the Physical Education club while at Western.

At present Mr. Hagerman is an agent for the Aetna Oil Company. He is a Jaycee and active in church work, is a coach in the Small Fry Football Conference, and a unit executive in the Army Reserve. He is a Purple Heart Veteran of World War II.

Western Students Attend Political Meet

By BOB WILSON

For the first time in the history of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, a political convention was held for college students only. Never before has such a meeting been held which was directed only to those students in the 18 to 24 year age group.

Colleges Represented

The Collegians for Waterfield were represented from Western by some 150 students who made the trip to Louisville in automobiles and a chartered bus. All the colleges and universities in Kentucky were represented at this convention. A number of some 400 was expected but when the tally was figured there were 800 students in the two dining rooms.

A meal was served as the program was opened with an invocation by Carroll Hubbard of Georgetown College.

The program was presided over by Jerry Ringo, state chairman for Young Kentuckians for Waterfield.

Western Writers Elect Officers For New Term

The Western Writers met recently at the Garrett student center to elect their officers for the present semester and the first semester of the school year of 1959 and 1960.

The newly elected officers are as follows: editor in-chief, Gerald Kousler, a chemistry major from Owensboro; business manager, John Boyd, an English major from Dunedin, Fla.; and secretary-treasurer, Marjorie Helm, a history major from Austin, Ky.

Other Officers

Other officers elected include the short story editor, Charles Goodall, a physics major from Louisville; the poetry editor, Ailene Dooley, an English major from Bowling Green; the essay editor, Patsy Gray, an English major from Mayfield; the society chairman, Myrtle Abbott, an art major from Monticello; the book review editor, Barbara Bennett, an English major from Owensboro; the art consultant, Phil Osgatharp, an art major from Allensville; and the translation editor, Dan Brawner, an art major from Bowling Green.

Learn Duties

The unusual tenure of office was advocated by Miss Justine Lynn, the sponsor of Western Writers, because it will allow the new officers to become well acquainted with their duties while the old officers are still available to act in an advisory capacity.

Various short stories, essays, and poems were read at the meeting, and critiques were given by the members.

Membership is still open and invitations are extended to all Western students who are interested in any phase of the Writers, whether it be writing, reviewing, criticizing, or typing.

MISS EGBERT SPEAKS

On Thursday, January 15, Miss Ercell J. Egbert of the History department spoke to the Bowling Green branch of the A. A. U. W. on the Middle East and United States policy.

Miss Stonecipher has been vice-president of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South, president of the Kentucky Classical Association, state president of the American Association of University Women, member of the League of Women Voters, State Mental Health Association and the Three Gallon Club of Blood Donors. Miss Stonecipher is also a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honorary sorority.

sembling his technical staff for what adds up to being the most ambitious production yet attempted at Western.

Dates Set

March 18 and 19 have been tentatively set as production dates for "Carousel" in Van Meter Auditorium. The orchestra for the occasion will be drawn from the Music department under the direction of Mr. Rose.

The tag "Music by Richard Rodgers" and "Book and Lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II" has become something of a guarantee of theatrical success for each in the long succession of musicals that have adorned the Broadway scene for the past two decades, ever since the sensational opening of "Oklahoma" and including their current hit, "The Flower Drum Song."

Taken From Drama

"Carousel," as most of Rodgers and Hammerstein's successes have been, is an adaptation from a previously successful play or novel. This one was taken from the moody melodrama of Ferenc Molnar, Austrian playwright, which as "Lillom" had played to Broadway acclaim in two different productions under the Theatre Guild's auspices starring Eva La Galliene and Joseph Schildkraut.

The music of "Carousel" captures in a disarming way the sentimental charm of the unsophisticated people whose story it tells. "Soliloquy," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "If I Loved You," and "June Is Bustin' Out All Over" rank with the best songs and lyrics that Rodgers and Hammerstein have added to popular American music.

Several Students Receive Various Penmanship Cert.

The number of students acquiring penmanship awards this last semester has jumped to a high degree of proficiency at Western. The percentage of students making the Teachers Penmanship Certificate, the Advanced, the Business and the Engrossing Certificates has climbed from an average of 69 per cent to 72 per cent. About 20 per cent more make passing grades but do not merit a certificate.

Mr. G. G. Craig, head of the Penmanship department, feels, after interviewing many students, that crowded classes and schools have reduced the average student to a mere number. The student is conscious of the fact that his handwriting must become a speaking picture and convey his thoughts in a legible manner to make good grades in all hard core subjects.

These students have teachers' Penmanship Certificates: Joyce Annis, Ellen Bryant, Carlo Burris, W. E. Bullock, Mary C. Bruce, Norman Cureton, Patsey J. Coomes, Judy Davidson, Patricia Doyle, Eula Ewing, Marcella Emberton, Frances Freezor, Leslie R. Franklin, Sharon Goff, Nita L. Harrell, Betty Kay Hammack, Nancy K. Hall.

Glenda Isaacs, G. W. Johns, Virginia Lee, Linda L. Lyons, Martha Lantrip, Elizabeth Myers, Susan L. Moses, Rita Ann McCoy, Ruth E. McTeague, Lloyd Ray Nash, Henrietta Norton, Emily O'Neil, Nancy Oakes, Earl H. Powers, Howard B. Pedigo.

Beverly Peveler, Dorothy Peterson, Mary Lou Ramsey, Loudean Ray, A. David Racel, Joyce L. Reed, Ann Stephens, W. F. Steenberg, Muriel Summerfield, Joan Scraphine, Lois Streble, Gwen Todd, Barbara Utley, Tom Worthington, Faye Whittaker.

Louise Hiestan, Thomas V. Jefferies, Lewis Johnson, Marilyn Jones, H. C. Kutz, Mary Pat Madison, Wanda Minor, A. C. Moody, Carolyn McCoy, William E. Pedigo, Marjorie L. Town, and Barbara Williams.

Mr. Loy Honored At Reception

Mr. William Loy, a new member at the Art faculty, was honored with a reception, Sunday, January 18, from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.

The work of Mr. Loy was featured at the reception and continues to be exhibited. The exhibit includes oils, watercolors, prints, and sculpture.

The theme of the exhibition is one of experimentation within the plastic arts. Mr. Loy has exhibited in six national shows and many regional exhibitions. One of the artist's silk screen prints received an international award in 1956.

The reception was open to the public; it was attended by students, faculty, and citizens of Bowling Green.

For those desiring to see the exhibit, it will remain in the gallery, Room 300, Cherry Hall for an indefinite time.

Seven mid-year Western graduates received commissions on January 29, 1959. Receiving 2nd Lieutenant, United States Army commissions are Joseph F. Britt, Carroll T. Vanhooser, and David P. Vanhooser, Infantry; William G. Case and Frederic C. Dow, Military Police Corps; Bobby P. Holman, Artillery; and Randall G. Routt, Armour.

Both Carroll and David Vanhooser have been designated Distinguished Military graduates and received Regular Army commissions. The other five are in the Army Reserve category.

The official ceremony held in the Student Union Building, consisted of a formal address by Lt. Col. James F. Marquis, head of Western's Military Science department. The oath of office was administered by Captain Robert R. Rennebaum.

SFC Robert A. Gour, Sgt.-Major in Western's Military Science department has recently completed the one-year Army Extension Course of the Administrative Specialists of the Adjutant General's Corps school at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

Sergeant Gour has also been selected as an honorary, lifetime member of the National Society of Pershing Rifles by Company 13-3, Western Kentucky State College.

The University of Louisville varsity rifle team, coached by Marine Sgt. John P. Perdeus and Air Force Staff Sgt. James Hungerpillar, defeated the shooters from Western, February 7, on the U. of L. range by a score of 1384 to 1344.

The University of Louisville, led by Hartley Thorpe's 285 out of a possible 300 points, was undefeated in last year's competition; and they have two victories on their way to another perfect season.

M-Sgt. Robert R. Riley has been selected to head the March of Dimes collection through all schools in Warren County, the W-Club, and county teen-agers.

Recently Western's rifle team lost a close shoulder-to-shoulder match with Murray. The final score was Murray, 1369, Western 1354.

In a postal match with Mississippi State University, Western emerged as the victor by 14 point Final score was Western, 1411, MSU, 1397.

Home Ec. Students Are Assigned To H. Management House

Announcement of the seniors who are to be occupying the Home Management House and doing their practice teaching has been made by the Home Economics department. The students who are assigned to the Home Management House are: Jeanine Smith, La Donna Thrap, Barbara Page, and Martha Sue Holland. Taking the positions of practice teachers are: Doris Smith and Harriet Wilson at Warren County High school; Norma Jean Hatler and Mrs. Imogene Black at Hartford.

The practice teaching being done off-campus is not new to the home economics majors. Russellville, Auburn, Hartford, and Glasgow are some of the towns whose high schools have been, or are now being used for supervised teaching by home economics majors.

Faculty Facts

Mr. William Loy and Mrs. Arlene Rawlings, members of the Art department, recently went to Lawrenceburg to serve as consultants in an art workshop for Anderson County teachers.

Dr. Whittle and Dr. Sumpter, Physics department, and Dr. Page and Miss Ethel Barnard, Education department, went to Columbia Friday, February 6, to plan with the president of Lindsey Wilson College for a future science workshop sponsored by Lindsey Wilson with the cooperation of Western.

Dr. Lee Francis Jones and Dr. Tate C. Page of the Education department attended a state committee meeting on Friday, January 16, in the Sheraton Hotel. Called by Dr. Robert Martin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the meeting was devoted to discussions of "The Gifted"

Dr. Tate C. Page, member of the Education department, attended a state committee meeting on "Rural Development" held in Louisville. This meeting was called by Mr. Mitchell Davis, Executive Secretary on the Kentucky Council of Education, and it met in the KEA building.

Dr. Tate C. Page, member of the Education department, was the science consultant at a meeting held at the Clarkson high school, Grayson County, on Friday, January 23. Dr. Page met with the elementary group in the morning and with the secondary group in the afternoon.

Combs, Wyatt Visitors On The Western Campus

Mr. Bert Combs and Mr. Wilson Wyatt were visitors on the Western Campus Friday morning. They arrived on the campus about 9:00 and visited Cherry Hall, the Student Center, Snack Bar and various other places on the Campus.

They met and greeted students in the various places on the campus.

Country Life Club Elects Officers

Officers for the spring semester were elected by the Cherry Country Life club when they met on Thursday evening, February 5.

Elected to offices were Stanley Head, president; Cluster Belcher, vice-president; James Chapman, secretary; Troy Hawes, treasurer; Elgin Bradley, business manager; Mike Chamberlain, chaplain; James Williams, athletic director; and Robert Litterell, reporter.

A recreation committee was appointed and plans are being made for the annual banquet, which will be in April.

The club discussed plans for sending a representative to St. Louis in March for the purpose of visiting the experimental farm of the Ralston Purina Feed Company which is located near that city. The company is also sponsoring trips of representatives from other parts of the country.

Coach Diddle Receives Award From The Falls City Alumni Chapter

Over one thousand former students, graduates, and friends of the college attended the reception January 23 held from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. in Parlor B of Freedom Hall.

The reception was sponsored by the Falls City Alumni Club. Charles Ruter, president of the club, and his committees completed arrangements for the reception. President Kelly Thompson, Public Relations Director Robert Cochran, Executive Director of Western Alumni Association Charles Keown, Lee Robertson, president of the Western Alumni Association, and a large delegation of faculty members were in attendance.

During half-time of the game between Western and West Virginia, Mr. Ruter presented coach E. A. Diddle with a plaque in recognition of his service to the youth of Kentucky and other states.

Coach Diddle is now in his 37th year as coach at Western. His team was barely edged from victory by highly ranked West Virginia in this game.

The following mid-year graduates in the department of home economics are located for the remainder of the year as follows: Jean Bozarth, assistant home demonstration agent, Warren County; Josephine Chinn, assistant home demonstration agent, Breckinridge County; Martha Combs, assistantship at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La.; Jean Davis, Larue County High, Hodgenville; Martha Glover, high school, Pineville; Jennie Johnson, (Mrs. Seymour) Knoxville, Tenn.; Rosie Ling, home demonstration service in Canada; Dorothy Rowland, high school, Munfordville, and Wandalyne Strange, high school, Paoli, Ind.

Mrs. Minnie C. Proffitt, BS '58, who teaches the fifth grade at Caverna Elementary School, Cave City, is planning to move to Orlando, Fla., to teach and live next year. Mrs. Proffitt won the Klarer Home Contest in November and is to receive the Bollinger-Martin Fairfax Home. The contract was sponsored by the Kroger Stores, Inc. She and her family have the opportunity to select a model home in the Plantation Subdivision of Orlando and it is their present plan to locate there. They have five children—one is in his third year of civil engineering at the university of Kentucky (he won a scholastic scholarship in C. E.); one is in the second year of nursing, the third one graduates from high school this year, one is graduating next year, and the fifth one is a freshman.

A former Western student is second in command on the new attack carrier Independence, the mightiest and most luxurious fighting ship afloat.

Com. Damon W. Cooper, 39, was a student at Western in 1937. Com. Cooper entered the Naval Academy in 1938 and graduated in February, 1941.

During World War II he served in the Okinawa campaign and in the Aleutians. He was on duty in Korean waters during the Korean War.

More about the 1958 graduates: Ray M. Weaver, BS '58, is coaching and teaching social science in the Bowling Green High school. He was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and served as class officer of the Junior class. Ray is a life member of the alumni association. In addition to his teaching duties, he is taking graduate work on the Hill. His wife, Jo Ann Strange, will receive her degree at Western this summer. They reside at 140 Catherine St.

Aaron E. Beals, BS '58, is teaching vocational agriculture in the high school at Sharpsburg. He was an active member of the Cherry Country Life club while in college. Aaron has subscribed to life membership in the alumni association.

Robert J. Gover, BS '58, is teaching and coaching basketball in the Richardsville High School, Warren County. Before receiving his degree, he held a similar position in the Burnside High School. He has also worked with the Union Carbide Nuclear Company at Oak Ridge, Tenn. His wife, the former Dora Fitzgerald, is also a former Western student.

Maurice Raymond Grayson, BS '58, is teaching industrial arts in the high school at Fieldale, Va. Martha Ann Green, BS '58, is

Miss Schneider Closes Long Career At Western

By Carl Chelf

When Miss Florence Schneider retired on February 1 of this year, it marked the end of a long career of service to Western. Miss Schneider was born here in Bowling Green. She attended St. Columbus Academy and later graduated from Bowling Green Business University.

Begin Career

In 1910 Miss Schneider began her career on the administrative staff of Western. She started to work in the business office of the college under Mr. O. G. Byrn who was the business manager at that time. The College was then located where the Business University is now.

In 1911 the College moved to the Hill, and Miss Schneider came also. She said, "Of course things looked quite different then." She went on to explain that at that time there were only three buildings on the Hill—the Administration Building; Potter College, which was used for classrooms; and Cabell Hall, which was torn down when the Library was built.

Heads Business Office

In 1919 Mr. O. G. Byrn resigned as business manager and Miss Schneider was placed in charge of the business office of the College. She served in this capacity until October of 1956, when she was made Executive Secretary.

College Hi Grad Ky.'s Outstanding Young Farmer

A College High graduate has been chosen the outstanding young farmer of Kentucky in a statewide contest sponsored by the Kentucky Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Bill Roark, 32-year-old Simpson county farmer, was awarded a plaque for the distinction at Freedom Hall at the Kentucky State Fairgrounds in Louisville, January 24.

Roark graduated from College High in 1944.

He manages two Simpson farms in the Prospect Hill community which include a total of 975 acres.

Treasurer of the College Heights Foundation. She filled this post until her recent retirement.

This organization plays an important role in functions connected with the College. It is in charge of the student loan fund; it played an important role in financing the construction of the Kentucky Building; and it erected the New Entranceway for the College.

Other Activities

In addition to her services in these offices, Miss Schneider has been connected with Western in various other capacities. She was a member of the Faculty Athletic Organization from its beginning. She served as Military Property Custodian from 1919, and she was a member of the Social Committee at various times.

When Miss Florence Schneider retired to her home on Route 2, Cemetery Road, Western's administrative staff lost the services of a loyal, experienced, and hard-working supporter of the College.

Louis Jull, Former Western Student, Court Judge, Dies

Former Juvenile Court Judge Louis H. Jull died as a result of a head injury received in a fall at his home on January 13.

A native of Hodgenville, Mr. Jull was a student at Western, and he was a graduate of the old Jefferson Law School.

Practiced Law

In 1937 he began the practice of law and served with the United States Department of Labor before entering military service. During World War II he served in the Counter-Intelligence Corps.

Widely regarded as one of the best juvenile-court judges in the nation, Mr. Jull had at times sent "delinquent parents" to jail for failure to supervise their children.

Appointed as judge of the first Domestic Relations Court in Louisville in 1950, he held that position until he moved to the Juvenile Court bench.

Survivors

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Jull, three children, Sandra, Paula, and Cary, one brother, R. K. Jull, Cincinnati, and five sisters; Mrs. H. J. Slothamer, Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. B. L. Ritchie, Mrs. W. J. O'Mara, Mrs. Chas. F. Stickling, and Mrs. D. L. Apel.

Debate Club Discusses Candidates

Politics held the light at the first Congress Debating club meeting of the semester Monday night. The Kentucky Democratic Gubernatorial primary set for May was hotly debated. Ronnie Sheffer spoke for Harry Lee Waterfield, and Hayward Joiner discussed the team of Bert Combs and Wilson Wyatt. Following the debate, the discussion was thrown open to the floor.

Officers Sworn In

Preceding the meeting, the newly elected Congress Debating club officers were sworn in by Beverly Belcher, returning secretary. This semester's officers are Neil Ward, president; Lena Priestly, vice-president; Miss Belcher, secretary; Joiner, sergeant-at-arms; and Charles Wade, parliamentarian.

Plan Mock Trial

In other important business, plans were begun for the annual mock trial to be held later in the semester. Chosen to serve as lawyers for the event were Steve Ecton, Ward, Sheffer, and Joiner.

The Berlin Crisis will be discussed at the next meeting, February 23.

Hilltoppers Down Tampa 83 To 64

Western Kentucky's towering Hilltoppers spotted the University of Tampa a slender halftime advantage and then ran the Spartans dizzy in the final 30 minutes to register an 83-64 victory before 1,000 fans here Friday night.

Behind 27-26 at intermission, the classy invaders caught up in the early minutes of the second half and all but chased Tampa off the court with a blistering fast-break attack.

Balanced Attack
Five men in Coach Ed Diddle's lineup scored in double figures, with guard Don Parsons, a nifty one-hand push-shot star, leading the attack with 16 points. Forward Charles Osborne and Darrel Bicknell followed with 15 and 14 respectively while Ralph Crosthwaite and Jude Talbot contributed 11 each.

Diddle famed for his flying red towel, worked himself into a near-frenzy in the first 20 minutes as his Toppers connected on only nine of 30 field-goal attempts.

Fast Break Clicks
His anxiety was quickly dispelled in the second half, however, when Western's fast break began clicking. More often than not, the Toppers had three men moving the ball against a single defender.

Crosthwaite, a 6-9 giant, controlled both backboards and once he really made up his mind to go to work, Western had little trouble realizing its eighth win of the season. The setback was Tampa's 13th against 5 victories.

Western Tops LaSalle 96-74

Hitting for an amazing 50.7 per cent of their field-goal attempts, Western's Hilltoppers led all the way as they turned back LaSalle College 96-74 on Monday night, January 26.

Ralph Crosthwaite, Western's 6'9" All-American candidate, looked every inch an All-American as he scored 32 points and grabbed 13 rebounds. He hit ten of fifteen shots from the field and tossed in 13 free throws.

Other Scoring
Rugged Charlie Osborne followed Crosthwaite with 19 points and snared 15 rebounds. Guard Don Parsons added 15 points, and Darrel Bicknell came off the bench to toss in 12 tallies.

Put Game On Ice
Three quick baskets by Sarakatsannis gave Western a 57-46 lead and then Crosthwaite got hot to put Coach Diddle's team ahead 63-46. This was too much for the Explorers to overcome.

LaSalle shot well also, connecting on 45.5 per cent of their shots. Ralph Bantivoglio, a 5'10" guard, was high scorer with 22 points.

Western Rolls Over Tampa 89 to 57

The Western Hilltoppers came up with a combination that clicked like a well oiled machine, and they marched over Tampa University 89 to 57 here last night.

Leading scorer was Darrel Bicknell with 28 points as Coach Diddle moved him to a guard slot. Talbot added 18 and Crosthwaite tabbed 16.

CLOSING IN — Closing in on Western's Ralph Crosthwaite as he snares a rebound are West Virginia's Bob Claussen (left) and Willie Akers in their battle at Freedom Hall in Louisville. West Virginia grabbed the victory in the last three seconds on a tip-in by Claussen.

West Va. Edges Western 74-72 In Final Seconds

West Virginia University staged a re-run of its epic two-point conquest of Western in the 1942 National Invitational Tournament final to tumble the Hilltoppers, 74-72, at Freedom Hall Friday night.

A tap-in by Bob Claussen on a shot missed by Jerry West in the final 3 seconds brought a hard-earned victory for the Mountaineers.

Make Comeback

It was every bit as agonizing and frustrating a loss as that other one 17 years ago as the Hilltoppers, who simply could not have made a greater effort, snatched the challenge from the nation's tenth ranked team with a brilliant second half comeback.

Down by 11 points at 46-35 at intermission the Toppers forged a 72-70 lead with just 2:49 left on superlative performances by sophomore Charlie Osborne and Panny Sarakatsannis and then lost it in a finish painfully reminiscent of that 1942 NIT title game.

Ties Game

Claussen tied the game at 72 all on a beautiful pass from West and the Toppers now had the ball with only 1:45 remaining but the Mountaineers managed to steal the ball and make that final bucket which ended the game.

Panny Sarakatsannis, who hit six consecutive field goals in the first minutes of the second half was the leading scorer for the Toppers with 22 points while Osborne and Crosthwaite had 16 and 15 respectively.

College High Basketball Queen Crowned

The Student Activities Committee of College High school sponsored the crowning of a Basketball Queen on February 6, between the A and B team games with Franklin-Simpson.

This year's queen is Neisie DeJude, senior and cheerleader for three years. The two princesses accompanying Miss Delotous were Ann Lee Belterworth and Kay McKeel. Members of her court were Judy Meredith, Nell Myers, and Becky Hudson.

The coronation of Miss Delotous was a resemblance to the coronation of a royal queen with trumpeters and drummer.

Fine Defense
Very noticeable in the game was the outstanding defensive play of Al Ellison who had his hands full with the job of guarding All-American Jerry West of the Mountaineers.

The win was West Virginia's 14th in 17 games. Western fell back to 6-6 on the season.

The Mountaineers hit 29 of 62 from the field for 46.8 percentage. Western cashed 28 of 60 for 46.7. Both converted 16 of 25 free throws. West Virginia had a 44-39 margin in rebounds but committed 20 errors to 16 for Western.

Western Topples Murray 87-77 In Two Overtimes

By Gary Roberts

Crothwaite Ellison, and Parsons triggered a fast finish to topple Murray State College 87-77. Tying the score with just nine seconds left in the regulation game on Ralph Crothwaite's 20-foot jump shot, Western crammed 14 points into the second five-minute extra period last night to lash astonished Murray in one of the closest, most uproarious, topsy-turviest games ever played here.

Ellison Sparks Move

An exhausted, standing-room only crowd of 5,000 saw junior forward Al Ellison, who was benched in the first half for lagging play, virtually destroy the Racers in the second over time after the arch rivals had battled through a scoreless first overtime period. Twice down by six points in the second half and apparently on the verge of folding with just 10 minutes left, Western got an all-around championship performance from Crothwaite, who flagged 28 points and delt Murray killing blows on the boards with a whopping 25 rebounds.

Western Comes Back

It is hard to say when the real dramatic moments started. Alexander of Murray lofted one from the corner for a 69-65 lead with 1:50 left and it looked all over for Western. But Ellison banged home a 15 footer from the baseline.

There was 1:40 left now, Alexander was standing all alone 15 feet from the goal as Western was trying for a steal, but he just couldn't find the range and missed it. Ellison cleared the rebound and was fouled by Darnall. He sank both singles. It was 69 all with 1:20 to go.

Ties Score

Fouled by Parsons on the backline, Dale Alexander sank both frees for Murray with 1:03 remaining. Thirteen seconds later, Parsons redeemed himself as he streaked to his left, found room, and drove under for a back-hand layup to once again knot the score at 71-all.

Murray froze the ball until the last fifteen seconds of regulation play and Parsons fouled Brooks who immediately connected on both frees. Western quickly called time out and talked things over. They threw the ball in from under the Murray goal and immediately called time out again. The last time-out was in order to move the ball to mid-court instead of having to take a chance on a Murray full-court press and waste precious time.

Crothwaite Connects

They set up a screen for Crothwaite and the big boy really came through with a 20 foot jump shot that sailed through. Murray was stunned to retaliate quickly and time ran out as Alexander missed a 40 footer.

The first extra-period was a war of nerves as both teams constantly missed shots. First Murray missed and Western recovered, then Western missed and Murray recovered. It went on like that for the full five-minutes of the extra-period.

Second Overtime

The second extra-period was one of all Western. Ellison and Parsons just couldn't be stopped as they repeatedly stole the ball and drove down the floor to riddle the Murray defense. In the second period Murray got only four points and two of those were on free throws.

After this the "Big Red" ran wild to soundly defeat the Racers by a big ten point margin. The crowd rewarded the team with a victory celebration that topped all previous ones. They were mobbed from all sides.

Miami Downs Toppers

The University of Miami's skill at the foul stripe boosted the Hurricanes to their first win in twelve attempts Saturday night January 31 as they downed the Hilltoppers 109 to 95 in a free-scoring game.

Fast Pace

Personal fouls totaled an even 50 in the fast-break, scramble type ball game in which the lead changed hands eleven times. Then Dick Hickox got hot for the Hurricanes and hit for eight consecutive points and Miami went ahead 27-23. They built that lead to 35-25 and stayed nearly that far ahead until they went into halftime ahead at 48-40.

Hickox was the games leading scorer with 25 points. Osborne led the Toppers with 23 and Parsons added 20.

DON PARSONS

Western Tops Middle Tenn. In OVC Clash

Sparked by the ball hawking and the backcourt-blasting of junior guard Don "Slow-Gait" Parsons, Western ran Middle Tennessee State College out of a zone defense that had proved pesky for a half to move into second place in a tight OVC conference race with an 89-65 victory.

One - Two Punch

Big Ralph Crothwaite finished with 25 points and Parsons collected 21. Between them they connected on 15 field goals in just 25 shots, sank 16 of 18 free throws and booked 46 points in Western's most efficient 1-2, inside-outside display of the season.

Middle Tenn.'s Bob Williamson netted 29 points to lead all scorers and cleared the boards 19 times. Williamson's 19 rebounds are the most any opposing player has yet claimed against Western.

Zone Defense

Middle Tenn. parlayed its zone and a triple post offense into early 16-10 and 23-16 leads. Crothwaite tallied and a long ringer by Sarakatsannis shaved the Raiders' first big lead and Parsons and Crothwaite took care of the second lead in short order.

Crothwaite's layup tied it at 23-all and Charley Osborne sent Western ahead to stay at 26-23 with a three-point charge. Parsons connected on three straight goals as Ellison hit from the corner to send the Toppers on their way.

Western Stops Raiders

Western led 40-34 at the half and sent the game out of reach by holding the Raiders scoreless from the field for the first eight minutes of the closing period. The Raiders missed 14 consecutive shots and Ellison led a defense which repeatedly stole the ball.

Western hit 47.0 percentage from the field, cashing 31 of 66. Middle Tenn. was ice cold, connecting only 20 of 66 for 30.3 effectiveness, despite a hot 7 for 14 performance by Williamson.

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SMOOCH

Back in my courting days (the raccoon coat was all the rage, everybody was singing Good Morning, Mister Zip Zip Zip, and young Bonaparte had just left Corsica), back, I say, in my courting days, the standard way to melt a girl's heart was to write poetry to her.

I don't understand why young men today have abandoned this gambit. There is nothing like poetry for moving a difficult girl. What's more, poems are ridiculously easy to write. The range of subjects is endless. You can write a poem about a girl's hair, her eyes, her lips, her walk, her talk, her clothes—anything at all. Indeed, one of my most effective love lyrics was called To Maud's Pencil Box. It went like this:

*In your dear little leatherette pencil box
Are pencils of yellow and red,
And if you don't tell me you love me soon,
I'll hit you on top of the head.*

Honesty compels me to admit that this poem fell short of success. Nothing daunted, I wrote another one. This time I pulled a switch; I threatened myself instead of Maud.

*Oh, Maud, pray stop this drivel
And tell me you'll be mine,
For my sweetbreads they do shrivel
And wind around my spine.
My heart doth cease its beating,
My spleen uncoils and warps,
My liver stops secreting
Soon I needs be a corpse.*

When this heart-rending ballad failed to win Maud, I could only conclude that she was cruel and heartless and I was better off without her. Accordingly I took back my Hi-Y pin, bade her adieu, and have not clapped eyes on her since. Last I heard, she was working in Galveston as a Plimsoll line.

But I did not mourn Maud long, for after Maud came Doris—Doris of the laughing eyes, Doris of the shimmering hair, Doris of the golden tibiae! Within moments of meeting her, I whipped up a torrent of trochaic tetrameter:

*Oh, my sweet and dulcet Doris!
I love you like a Philip Morris
With its mild and rich tobacco
In its white and scarlet pack-o.
I'd swim from Louisville to Natches
For Philip Morris and you and matches.*

Well, of course, the dear girl couldn't resist a poem like that—what girl could?—and she instantly became my slave. For the rest of the semester she carried my books, washed my car, and cored my apples. There is no telling where it all would have ended if she hadn't been drafted.

So, men, you can see the power of poetry. Try it yourself. All you need is a rhyming dictionary, a quill pen, and a second-hand muse.

Cogs in a Big Wheel." Five students had qualified entries in the 1959 contest. In addition to May and Jordan, they were William C. Main, Paducah; Robert B. Siddens, Bowling Green, and Hayward Joiner, Louisville.

Judges For Contest

Naomi Dempsey, Western senior from Sturgis, the 1958 winner of the A. A. U. W. Oratorical Contest, presided at the Ogden competition. She presented the judges for the occasion, E. O. Pearson, Jr., production and personnel manager of the Union Underwear Company, Mrs. Frances Dixon, director of speech activities at College High School, and Joe C. Covington, Bowling Green attorney.

Will Represent Western

Russell H. Miller, director of speech activities at Western, serves as contest manager for the competition sponsored annually by the Ogden Alumni Association to select the outstanding speakers from the men of the junior and senior classes to represent Western in inter-collegiate competitions. The winner will appear on the Ogden Day program at chapel on April 8. Thomas T. Pogue, Western's winner in 1958, went on to win the Kentucky Oratorical Contest in the men's division.

Arts & Crafts Club Elects Officers For New Semester

Officers for the spring semester were elected at the first meeting of the Arts and Crafts club held on February 5. The officers elected are: president, George Kinslow; vice-president, Frank Pittman; secretary, Perry Young; treasurer, Perry Lewis; historian, Joe Magruder; reporter, Rolan Bennett; and sergeant-at-arms, Holbert Miller. Kinslow, Young, and Lewis were re-elected to the offices that they held last semester.

Tentative plans were made for a showing of the movie Sergeant York. Howard Lowrey, who is the son-in-law of Alvin C. York, whose life the movie is based on, will provide the film. All Arts and Crafts club members, their families, or guests, are invited to attend. Time and location of the showing will be announced.

Rives and Sandra Dempsey. Ratings Given

The first presentation at 8:30 a. m. will be College High's presentation of Zimmermann's "The Dream" directed by Mrs. Frances Dixon. The other plays will be presented on the half-hour until 3:30 at which time the convocation for presentation of ratings and designation of outstanding players will be held in the Memorial Room of the Student Center. Schools awarded superior ratings in the region will be entitled to participate in the state contest to be held at the University of Kentucky on March 9 and 10. Mr. Charles Keown, dean of students, is the local manager for the Drama Festival.

Iva Scott Club Plans Banquet

Faye Harper, president of the Iva Scott club, presided over the business session of the February meeting last Tuesday, at 6:30. The business included plans for the annual banquet that is held by the club. The banquet will occur at the Olde Fort restaurant, April 30.

Committees were appointed to arrange further plans for the banquet.

During the business meeting a nominating committee was asked to meet for the purpose of selecting officers for next year.

A valentine party was the main objective of the evening which progressed under the direction of Jane Elkin, head of the party committee. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all present.

L&M is Low
in tar

with
taste to it

Don't settle for one without the other!

"L&M is kindest to your taste because L&M combines the two essentials of modern smoking," says TV's Jack Lescaoula. LOW TAR: L&M's patented filtering process adds extra filter fibers electrostatically, crosswise to the stream of smoke... makes L&M truly low in tar.

MORE TASTE: L&M's rich mixture of slow-burning tobaccos brings you more exciting flavor than any other cigarette.
